(2) Our school's measures for creating an inclusive learning environment included (one or more options can be selected)#:

- Translating major school circulars/important matters on school webpage
- Organising activities which promote cultural integration/raise sensitivity to diverse cultures and religions (please specify):

Students from different nationalities and cultural backgrounds can get to know each other by holding inclusion day in school; students of different nationality share breakfast · listen to the sermon and increase their knowledge of Christianity in u-zone morning time, this helps promote cultural inclusion; Inclusion activities from the mentoring team such as "Develop an inclusive school campus for local and NCS students through positive education to promote acceptance and appreciation of cultural differences", class activities, inter-house competitions . These allow the students learn to think rationally, break through their own inherent concepts and prejudices, contact and understand different people more actively, and break the invisible barriers between people.

- Providing opportunities for NCS students to learn and interact with their Chinese-speaking peers in school or outside school (e.g. engaging NCS students in uniform groups or community services) (please specify):

Through joining the air cadet with local students in the school, non-Chinese speaking students can learn aviation knowledge, training discipline, etc. to develop team spirit; non-Chinese speaking students and local students organising student union together, planning and implementing school activities, and participate 45th anniversary musical, allows them to actively make contact with local students, enhance the communication between them, build up an inclusive campus.

- Other measure(s) (please specify):

4Cs plan is being applied in all groups throughout the whole school to cultivate non-Chinese speaking students' Chinese proficiency, enhance civic responsibility, develop multiple potentials and help students plan their career paths, with the ultimate goal of integrating into the Hong Kong community; Conduct life planning workshops for non-Chinese speaking students, invite Eastern District Police Community Relations Office to the school to give police induction talks, so that students can know more about different career paths; promote peer mentoring programs to develop the organizing and the ability of helping each other; cultivate students' concern and responsibility for the environment through cleaning competition.

(3) Our school's measures for promoting home-school cooperation with parents of NCS student(s) included (one or more options can be selected)#:

- Appointing assistant(s) who can speak English and/or other language(s) facilitating the communication with parents of NCS student(s)
- Discussing the learning progress (including learning of Chinese) of NCS student(s) with their parents on a regular basis

- Providing parents of NCS student(s) with information on school choices/further studies/career pursuits for their children
- Explaining to parents of NCS student(s) and emphasising the importance for their children to master the Chinese language
- Other measure(s) (please specify):
