

C.C.C. Kwei Wah Shan College
School-based After-school Learning and Support Programme 2006 ~ 2007

Proposal

(I) Aim: The aim of the scheme is to help the youngsters have a good communication with their teachers, parents and peer groups. Moreover, the purpose of the scheme is to help the youngsters build up one's confidence and have all-round development. Through this scheme, it is expected to include the following items:

- (1) To build up the students' confidence to deal with academic studies.
- (2) To provide social skills for the students to communicate with other people, including their peers and parents.
- (3) To increase the students' self-determination and self-esteem and develop their self-efficacy.
- (4) To promote the students' moral competence.
- (5) To provide recognition for positive behaviour.

(II) Target Group: The students that come from low-income families and have successfully been given the subsidy on the purchase of text-books.

(III) Responsible Group: Counselling Team (Teacher-in-charge: Mr. MA Man-kwong)

(IV) Content: In order to fulfill the aim of the scheme, the following items will be included:

- (a) voluntary service
- (b) indoor activities
- (c) after-school academic learning programme
- (d) camping

(A) Nature of activities

School-based After-school Learning and Support Programme demands the following:	The main point of the scheme
1. To develop students' learning ability	a) To promote learning atmosphere b) To help students solve their problems in learning

2. To help students to develop moral competence and self-esteem.	To teach students to respect other people including their parents
3. To help students to develop social skills	To provide social skills for students. To communicate students with other peers.
4. To help students to understand the value of oneself.	To teach students the importance of one's life and understand the meaning of life.

(B) Scheme: S. 1 ~ 4

Period	Content	Duration	Frequency	Budget ($)
Oct 2006	Introduction (Group activities)	1 – 2 Hours	1 time	500.00
Nov 06 ~ Apr 07	1 day-camp	1 day	1 time	5,000.00
Jan 07 ~ Apr 07	Voluntary service— visiting the Aged Home	Half a day	2 –3 times	6,000.00
Oct 06 ~ Jun 07	After-school academic learning	1 – 1.5 Hour per session	Once a week	18,000.00
Jan 07 ~ July 07	Group activities (personal growth)	Half a day	1 – 2 times	4,500.00

Budget summary:

Expected Income:

Grant in 2006 ~ 2007

HK$ 34,000.00

Expected Expenditure:

- |                                       |      |           |
|---------------------------------------|------|-----------|
| 1. Introduction (Group activities)    | HK$ | 500.00    |
| 2. Camp                               | HK$ | 5,000.00  |
| 3. Voluntary service                  | HK$ | 6,000.00  |
| 4. After-school academic learning     | HK$ | 18,000.00 |
| 5. Group activities (personal growth) | HK$ | 4,500.00  |

-----
Total Expected Expenditure: HK$ 34,000.00

- (IV) Assessment:
1. Teachers' comment
  2. Social workers' observation and comment
  3. Questionnaires (to be done by participants).

(V) Expectation:

1. 70 % of the participants' interest in learning can be aroused.
2. 70% of the participants' self-confidence can be achieved.
3. 70% of the participants' social skills can be achieved.