

The Proposal

(I) Aim The aim of this scheme is to develop the abilities of the youth in different areas, like communications with parents, teachers as well as peer groups and the control of self-emotion. Moreover, the purpose of the scheme is to build up one's confidence and have all-round development. What we expect to achieve, through this scheme, are as follows:

1. To build up the students' confidence to deal with their routine daily work, academic studies in particular.
2. To improve the students' social skills to communicate with their peer groups and adults.
3. To improve the students' self-determination and self-esteem and develop their self-efficacy.
4. To provide recognition for positive behaviour.
5. To promote the students' moral competence.
6. To promote the youth's emotional competence.

(II) Target Group: The students that come from low-income families and have been successfully given the subsidy on the purpose of text-books.

(III) content: It is expected to make arrangements for the students concerned so as to fulfill the scheme. The proposal may include the following items:

- (1) To provide rock-climbing because this kind of activity may help build up one's self-confidence. The activity may be arranged after the examination.
- (2) To arrange a one-day camp or/ and an outing in which some activities like promoting the team spirit and social competence will be included. It may be arranged in November.
- (3) To promote voluntary service for the Aged in order to let students learn how to care for and communicate with adults.
- (4) To arrange some after-school academic learning programmes for those who are weak in studies.
