

The Proposal

(I) Aim: The aim of this scheme is to develop the abilities of the youth in different areas, such as communications with parents, teachers as well as peer groups and the control of self-emotion. What's more, the purpose of the scheme is to build up one's confidence and have all-round development. What we expect to achieve, through this scheme, are as follows:

1. To build up the students' self-confidence to deal with their routine daily work, academic studies in particular.
2. To improve the students' social skills to communicate with their peer groups and adults.
3. To improve the students' self-determination and self-esteem and develop their self-efficacy.
4. To provide recognition for positive behaviour.
5. To promote the youth's moral competence.
6. To promote the youth's emotional competence.

(II) Target Group: The students from low-income families have successfully been given the subsidy on the activities provided.

(III) content: It is expected to make arrangements for the students concerned to fulfill the scheme. The proposal may include the following items:

- (1) To provide rock-climbing because this kind of activity can help build up one's self-confidence.
- (2) To arrange a one-day camp(war game) which some activities like promoting the team spirit and social competence will be included. It may be arranged in May or July after the examination.
- (3) To arrange some after-school academic learning programmes for those who are weak in studies. These programmes will cover English, Chinese and Mathematics.
